

Sydney legal firm website makeover

✘ Atkinson Vinden needed a fresh new look for their website. With their upcoming AGM and a promotional campaign already booked, they needed it fast.

Having worked together in the past the North Shore legal firm knew they could rely on the team at 2pi Software to deliver a high quality refactored site in just weeks.

The brief was to reflect the company motto of “Right people, right advice”, with staff photographs and easily accessible profiles. Video content and graphics had to dovetail with the existing bespoke company branding.

With coffee on the brew and sleeves rolled up the team from 2pi Software set to it and within 16 days the almost completed new site was up and running and ready for review.

On budget and in time for the AGM and media launch, 2pi Software delivered a new site that incorporated Atkinson Vinden's focus on people, and with a look that reflected its high end branding.

"I can vouch for the good work you and your Bega pals have done for our website in Sydney"
